How to go West.

This is an inquiry which every one should have brashfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burilington, and the "L., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burkington have achieved a spiencid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burilington they connect with the B. & M. R. East Liberty Cattle Market. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11, 1873. The receipts of cattle light, both of through and way stock. Trade since our last report has been active, and prime cattle are in demand at yesterday's quocatile are in demand at yesterday's quo-tations. At this writing there is very little stock in the yards unsold. Some faw holders shipped through this week, but the majority of transient dealers sold their stock here, considering the market a fair one. Below will be found the rates at which the different grades changed hands: PRICES.—Extra 1,560 lbs steers, fine and smooth, $7,00; extra 1,400 lbs steers, fine and smooth, $6,50 to $5,75; extra 1,300 hs steers, fine and smooth, $6,00 to $5,25; prime 1,200 lbs steers, fine and amooth, $5,25 to $5,75; fair 1,100 lbs steers, fine and amooth, $5,00; fair 1,000 hs steers, Ene and amooth, $4,25 to $4,75; common, $3,75 to $4,00; bulls, $2,50 to $3,50; cows, $3,25 to $4,00; stockers, $3,75 to 4,00 Hogs—The run of hogs continues light—the market is still good in all grades and kinds, and they sell soon after arrisud kinds, and they sell soon after arrival. Light pigs are in the best demand, and are quotable from 10 to 25c higher than any other grade. At this writing the feeling is good, but desiers look for increased receipts, in which case lower prices will rule. Following are the rates at which the market closed:

† PRICES.—Extra Philadelphia $4,25 to $4,35; prime four consecutive weeks, according to law Yorkers $4,40 to $4,50; light pigs $4,50 to $4,65.
